Dedication

DEDICATION

We, the senior class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six, do hereby dedicate our year book to our class advisor,

MRS. JOHN MORRISON

In behalf of said class, we extend our appreciation to her for her help in making it possible for us to graduate under her skillful supervision from eighth grade.

In our twelfth year of school she was again our council, advisor, and instructor.

We, the class of nineteen hundred and fifty-six, owe Mrs. Morrison a grateful "Thank You" from each of us to her as we journey on life's separate ways.

MRS. EDITH MORRISON

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '56

"The Mirth and Fun grew fast and furious."

A sparkling group of fifty-one students entered grade school in September of '43. Because of the size of the class we were divided into two groups. The first Part of the year we were under Mrs. Hansen and Mrs. Crowley. Later Mrs. Crowley left and Mrs. Hatfield came.

By the end of our first year twelve members of the class had moved and Miss Ischi was honored by having us all in her second grade class.

Miss Thomas, our third grade teacher, taught us how to write. In fourth grade, under the able direction of Miss Graves, we first developed our talents in poetry.

In fifth grade several of our brave students took to band. Mrs. Ehredt was our teacher, she was proud of our group and had a right to be! In sixth grade Mrs. Harkson took over. We developed our own little band and presented a play for our parents: "How Boots Befooled the King."

Years seemed to fly—We were already in seventh grade and our teacher was Mrs. Keene. Boy, were we big shots now: Just think, Junior High School!

Mrs. Morrison prepared us for High School in the eighth grade. We had a big graduation party. At night too! Twenty-nine of us graduated to old H. H. S. on May 28, '52.

All four years in H. H. S. have been full and exciting.

Our Freshman and Sophomore advisor was Miss Williams. We made most of our money these years from magazine sales, dances, bake sales, and Sophomore Comedy Hour. We Sponsored a prom our Junior year. The theme was: "Indian Love Call." We sold refreshments at games and presented our Junior Class play under the direction of Mr. Book. It was "The Big Blow-Up." Mr. Walsh was our Junior class advisor.

This year has really been a big year. We have Mrs. Morrison as an advisor. She directed our Senior play "Meet Me In St. Louis," which was a big success.

The Homecoming Queen for '55 was Carolyn Haug and honorary captain, Martin Murphy, both seniors. The other who has been an attendant was Carolyn McKinley.

We have been honored by our great athletes and our cheerleaders, Carolyn McKinley and Carolyn Haug.

We've had a lot of fun the past twelve years and are looking forward to our senior trip out East. The class has cooperated wonderfully. We face the future with great anxiety and plans for the years to come.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF '55

"The Minib and the Great and the Future"

A speaking group of fifty-one students entered grade school in September of '53. Because of the size of the class we were divided into two groups. The first part of the year we were under Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Cowley. Later Mrs. Cowley left and Mrs. Hatfield came.

By the end of our first year twelve members of the class had moved and Mrs. Hatfield was honored by having us all in her second grade class.

Mrs. Thomas, our third grade teacher, taught us how to write in fourth grade under the able direction of Mrs. Groves, who first developed our talents in poetry.

In fifth grade several of our brave students took to Grand Mrs. Elbert. She was our teacher, she was proud of our group and had a right to be in fifth grade Mrs. Hatfield took over. We developed our own little band and presented a play for our parents. "How Boots Brought the King."

Years seemed to fly--We were already in seventh grade and our teacher was Mrs. Elbert. Boy, were we big shot now. Just think, Junior High School!

Mrs. Harrison prepared us for high school in the eighth grade. We had a big graduation party. At night too! Twenty-nine of us graduated in old H. H. 2 on May 28, '55.

All four years in H. H. 2 have been full and exciting.

Our Freshman and Sophomore advisor was Mrs. Williams. We made most of our money these years from magazine sales, chess, chess sales, and "Punches." Comedy Hour was sponsored a year or two. The theme was "Junior Love." We sold refreshments at games and presented our Junior Class play under the direction of Mr. Beck. It was "The Big Blow-Up." Mr. Walsh was our Junior class advisor.

This year has really been a big year. We have Mrs. Harrison as an advisor. She directed our Junior play "What We're in for." It was a big success.

The Homecoming Queen for '55 was Carolyn Hagg and her very capable, Martin Murphy, both seniors. The other who has been an attendant was Carolyn McKinley.

We have been honored by our great athletes and our cheerleaders, Carolyn McKinley and Carolyn Hagg.

We've had a lot of fun the past twelve years and are looking forward to our senior year and high school. We've been wonderfully. We take the future with great anxiety and hope for the future to come.

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

"There's some are fou o' love divine"

Twenty-seven members entered the Junior Class of H. H. S. Our Class officers are: President, Wayne Whalen; Vice-President, Endress Haug; Secretary-Treasurer, Judie Henschel; Student Council Member, Sue Scheider; and Class Advisor, Mr. Book.

We added one member to our class this year, Peggy Heckler, and lost four. They are: Deloras Wescott, Darla Widmar, Jean Harkness and Hilbert Thill.

Judy Reed and Judie Henschel were chosen as cheerleaders. Judy Reed was also chosen as an attendant to the Homecoming Queen. Our float which was entered in the Homecoming parade was awarded first prize.

The Junior Class is proud of Dave Streight, Jim Calvert, LeRoy Curley and Wayne Whalen who went out for football this year. Also for these six who went out for basketball: Dave Streight, Denny McCormick, Jim Calvert, LeRoy Curley, Wayne Whalen and Wayne Thiesen.

Our Junior Class play, "The Curious Savage", was presented in March. We are looking forward to the Prom which is to be held on May 25. "On a Tropical Isle," will be our theme this year.

The Junior Class Wishes the Seniors best of luck and a prosperous future.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

"The younkens a' are warned to obey"

We, the Sophomore Class of '55 and '56 entered H. H. S. with twenty-seven members. New students this year were Suzanne Grant and James Ehret.

Our class officers are: President, Bill Leidinger; Vice-President, Judy Patterson; Secretary-Treasurer, Dalynnda Reitz; Student Council Member, Donna Speer.

We had a lot of fun making a float for the Homecoming parade. Our float won second prize.

We had two chili suppers to make a little profit this year. Both were very successful.

Five of our boys went out for basketball and about seven for football.

We wish the Seniors of "56" good luck and happiness in the future and that everything they do is good and prosperous.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

"The present only toucheth thee"

There are forty-nine students enrolled in our Freshman Class. The class officers are as follows: President, Bill Sullivan; Vice-President, Karen Thiesen; Secretary-Treasurer, Jean Speer; Student Council Member, Louise McCormick, and our Class Advisor, Mr. Hires.

Our Homecoming Queen candidate was Penny Watson and we had two cheerleaders that were chosen out of our class. They are Karen Thiesen and Jean Speer.

We made most of our money from the magazine sale at the beginning of the year.

We're very proud of our bunch of boys that went out for both football and basketball.

We wish the Seniors lots of luck in the years to come.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The music instructors at Hanover High School are Mrs. Olive Speer, who teaches vocal, and Mr. Jack Kranbeck, who teaches band. They've each been here two years. There are about forty-three in the "A" Band; twenty-eight in the "B" Band; thirty in the Mixed Chorus; and fifty in the Girls Chorus.

We had a fine pep band this year under the supervision of Carol Crawford.

Mr. Kranbeck says, "The bands have been progressing nicely this year, and next year we will greatly miss the seniors." The seniors in the band are: Carole Crawford, Carolyn McKinley, Ron Noton, Jerry Callahan, Phil Mitchell and Bob Patterson.

There are two solo instruments going to contest this year, they are: Ron Noton on trombone and Richard Speer on French horn. The ensembles are: two Cornet trios, brass sextette, mixed clarinet quartette, clarinet quartette, saxophone quartette, clarinet trio, and drum quartette.

The vocal soloists going are: Shirley Cook, alto; Priscilla Schaible, high soprano; Ruth Kmucha, mezzo soprano; Jimmie Nell Bryant, high soprano; Jean Speer, mezzo soprano; Eugene Ferguson, baritone; Phil Mitchell, baritone and Richard Speer, tenor. Ensembles are: two girls sextettes, and mixed octette.

The district contest this year is at South Beloit, Illinois

There has been a new ruling in "B" Band this year, which states that: As soon as they graduate into High School, they aren't in "B" Band any more.

SENIOR CLASS PLAY

Meet Me In St. Louis Sally Benson

The play takes place in St. Louis when the World's Fair is about to begin. Mr. Smith learns that he is going to be transferred to New York, and the family will have to move. When his four daughters hear about this they do everything in their power to make Mr. Smith's boss think he is not worthy of the job so they can stay in St. Louis.

Finally Mr. Smith's boss decides he's needed more in St. Louis and the family won't have to move.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The Curious Savage John Patrick

After the death of her husband, Mrs. Savage was sent to "The Cloisters," a private asylum, because her three step-children did not like what she was doing with their father's money. Mrs. Savage wanted to use it to make people's wishes come true, while the Savage children were interested only in having all the money themselves. Aid comes to Mrs. Savage in the form of five lunatics who help her keep control of her money and at the same time render it difficult for her to leave the asylum because of her fondness for them. The five lunatics outwit the crafty lawyer and judge who are the Savage children and help Mrs. Savage find the happiness which they have.
